

“WHEN GOD LOOKS AT US,
HE DOESN'T SEE LOTS OF
DIFFERENT RACES. HE SEES ONE RACE-THE
HUMAN RACE, AS IT IS IN HEAVEN.”

WWW.KENCLAYTOR.COM

The world's racial wounds seem as deep and as ugly as ever. Is there really any hope? The answer is yes, absolutely—but only if we answer the most fundamental question: “How does God view race?” Only when we get His perspective are we going to find lasting solutions.

Packed with practical next steps, inspiring stories, and Biblical discernment, As It Is in Heaven casts a vision for a church that shows the hurting world a bit of what heaven will be like: a place with people from every nation, tribe, people, and language—living in harmony.
